The Genesis of a Phenomenon: Roger Hargreaves' Vision

The story of the Mr. Men and Little Misses begins with a simple, albeit brilliant, question. In 1971, Roger Hargreaves' son, Adam, asked him, "What does a tickle look like?" This sparked an idea that would lead to the creation of Mr. Tickle, the first character in what would become an expansive and beloved series. Hargreaves, a keen observer of human nature, saw the potential in personifying common traits and emotions. He envisioned a world where distinct characteristics were not just recognized but celebrated, presented in a way that resonated with young minds.

Hargreaves' initial aim was to create books that were visually striking and easy for children to read. He opted for a distinctive art style: bold, flat colours, simple geometric shapes, and instantly recognizable silhouettes. This visual simplicity allowed children to quickly identify and connect with the characters, even before reading the text.
