We'll delve into everything from selecting your first cigar to the nuances of lighting, cutting, and enjoying the complex flavors that unfold. So, grab a comfortable chair, pour yourself a beverage of choice (more on that later!), and let's begin your cigar smoking adventure.

The Foundation: Choosing Your First Cigar

The world of cigars can seem daunting at first glance, with a dizzying array of sizes, shapes, origins, and brands. But fear not! The best way to start is with guidance and a willingness to experiment. Your first cigar doesn't need to be the most expensive or the rarest. It should be an introduction, something approachable and enjoyable.

Understanding Cigar Anatomy

Before we pick one, let's quickly understand what you're holding. A cigar is made of three main parts:

1. The Wrapper: The outer leaf, often the most visually appealing and contributing significantly to the cigar's flavor and aroma.
2. The Binder: The leaf that holds the filler together. It also plays a role in the cigar's overall taste.
3. The Filler: The heart of the cigar, made of blended tobacco leaves. This is where the bulk of the flavor profile originates.

Size and Shape Matter: Ring Gauges and Lengths

Cigars come in a vast array of sizes and shapes, often referred to as "vitolas." For beginners, it's wise to start with something medium-sized and not too thin or too thick.

1. Ring Gauge: This refers to the diameter of the cigar, measured in 64ths of an inch. A 50-ring gauge cigar is half an inch in diameter. Many beginners find gauges between 40 and 50 to be comfortable.
2. Length: This is pretty self-explanatory. Longer cigars generally mean a longer smoking time.

Recommendation for Beginners: Consider a "Robusto" (around 5 x 50 ring gauge) or a "Toro" (around 6 x 50 ring gauge). These are popular sizes that offer a good balance of flavor and smoking duration without being overwhelming.

Exploring Different Tobacco Origins and Blends

The origin of the tobacco significantly influences the cigar's taste. Some of the most renowned cigar-producing regions include:

1. Cuba: Famous for its rich, earthy, and complex cigars.
2. Dominican Republic: Offers a wide range of profiles, from mild and creamy to full-bodied.
3. Nicaragua: Known for its robust, spicy, and bold flavors.
4. Honduras: Produces cigars with a good balance of earthiness and spice.
5. Ecuador: Often used for wrappers, particularly the popular Connecticut Shade wrapper, which imparts a mild, smooth character.

For your first cigar, a milder blend from the Dominican Republic or an Ecuadorian Connecticut wrapper cigar is often recommended. These tend to be smoother and less overpowering for a novice palate.

Where to Buy Your First Cigar

Visit a reputable local cigar shop or a well-established online retailer. A good cigar shop will have knowledgeable staff who can guide you. Don't be afraid to ask for recommendations based on your preferences (e.g., "I'm looking for something mild and smooth for my first cigar").

The Essential Tools: Cutting and Lighting

Once you've chosen your cigar, the next steps involve preparing it for smoking. This requires a couple of essential tools: a cigar cutter and a lighter.

The Art of the Cut: Proper Cigar Cutting Techniques

Cutting a cigar is crucial for airflow. A clean cut allows you to draw smoke properly. Cutting too much or too little can negatively impact the smoking experience.

1. The Guillotine Cutter: This is the most common and versatile cutter. It makes a straight cut across the cap of the cigar. Aim to cut just behind the cap, removing only the excess leaf that would otherwise unravel.

2. The Punch Cutter: Creates a small, round hole in the cap. This is a more discreet option and can be good for smaller ring gauges.
3. The V-Cutter: Creates a V-shaped notch in the cap. Some smokers prefer the unique draw this provides.

How to Cut: Hold the cigar firmly and place the cutter on the cap. Make a quick, decisive cut. Avoid a slow, sawing motion, which can tear the wrapper. For a guillotine, aim to cut about 1/8th of an inch from the end of the cap.

Igniting the Experience: Choosing the Right Lighter

The way you light your cigar is as important as the cut. You want an even, consistent burn without introducing unwanted flavors.

1. Butane Torch Lighter: This is the preferred choice for cigar smokers. The consistent, high-heat flame ensures a quick and even light. Avoid lighters that use Zippo fluid or other fuel sources, as their taste can transfer to the cigar.
2. Cedar Spills: For a more traditional approach, cedar spills (thin strips of cedar wood) can be lit from a soft-flame lighter and used to light the cigar. This adds a subtle cedar aroma.

How to Light: Hold the cigar at a slight angle to the flame of your butane torch lighter. Rotate the cigar slowly, bringing the foot (the end you're lighting) to the edge of the flame. You're looking for an even char across the entire surface of the foot. Once you see a gentle glow, take a slow puff through your nose and mouth. If the flame is too close, you risk scorching the tobacco. If it's too far, it will take too long and be uneven.

The Ritual: Smoking Your Cigar

This is where the magic happens – the actual enjoyment of your cigar. It's not about rushing; it's about mindfulness and appreciation.

The Draw: Puffing with Purpose

Unlike cigarettes, you do not inhale cigar smoke into your lungs. The flavors and aromas are meant to be enjoyed on your palate and in your nasal passages.

1. Gentle Puffs: Take slow, deliberate puffs. Imagine you're sipping a fine wine. A puff every 30-60 seconds is generally a good pace.
2. Retrohale: After taking a puff, gently exhale some of the smoke through your nose. This "retrohale" reveals a whole new layer of aromas and flavors. It can be intense at first, so start with a small exhale and gradually increase it.

Observing the Burn: Striving for an Even Burn

An even burn is a sign of a well-made cigar and proper smoking technique. An uneven burn, known as "canoing," can lead to harshness.

1. What is Canoeing? This is when one side of the cigar burns faster than the other, creating a tunnel.
2. How to Fix it: If you notice canoeing, you can gently touch up the burn. Rotate the cigar so the slower-burning side is exposed to the flame for a moment. Some smokers even use a cedar spill to relight a section.

Understanding the Stages of a Cigar's Flavor Profile

As you smoke, the cigar's flavor will evolve. Most cigars can be divided into three "thirds," though this is a general guideline and can vary greatly depending on the cigar.

1. First Third (The Beginning): This is often where the cigar introduces its core character. It might be lighter, smoother, or more delicate.
2. Second Third (The Middle): The flavors usually deepen and become more complex. You might notice new notes emerging.
3. Third Third (The Finish): Often the strongest part, with bolder flavors and a richer finish. Be mindful of the cigar becoming too hot and harsh in this stage. If it gets too warm, set it down for a bit.

Knowing When to Say Goodbye: Ash and Extinguishing

The ash on a cigar is more than just debris; it's an indicator of the tobacco's quality and moisture content. It also helps regulate the burn temperature.

1. The Ash: Don't tap your cigar like a cigarette. Let the ash fall off naturally. A well-constructed cigar will hold a substantial ash.
2. Extinguishing: When you're finished, simply place your cigar in an ashtray and let it go out on its own. Stubbing it out can release unpleasant odors. The cigar will self-extinguish.

Enhancing the Experience: Pairings and Ambiance

Smoking a cigar is often a sensory experience, and enhancing it with complementary pairings and the right ambiance can elevate it to another level.

Beverage Pairings: Finding Your Perfect Match

The right drink can complement and contrast with the cigar's flavors, creating a harmonious synergy.

1. Whiskey and Bourbon: Classic pairings for a reason. The oak, caramel, and spice notes in many whiskeys can beautifully complement the tobacco's richness.
2. Rum: Particularly aged rums, with their sweet and complex profiles, can be a delightful companion.
3. Coffee: A robust black coffee can stand up to a stronger cigar, while a milder coffee might suit a lighter blend.
4. Port Wine: The sweetness and fruitiness of port can offer an interesting contrast to earthy or spicy cigars.

5. Water: Don't underestimate the power of simple water. It cleanses the palate and allows the cigar's true flavors to shine without interference.

General Rule: Try to match the strength of your drink to the strength of your cigar. A mild cigar with a strong spirit might be overwhelming.

Creating the Right Ambiance

The environment in which you smoke your cigar can significantly impact your enjoyment. While a dedicated humidor room is a dream for many, even simple considerations can make a difference.

1. Comfort: Find a comfortable place where you can relax and won't be rushed.
2. Ventilation: Cigar smoke can be pungent. Ensure good ventilation, especially if you're indoors. An outdoor patio or a well-ventilated room is ideal.
3. Quiet and Solitude: For many, cigar smoking is a time for quiet contemplation. Minimize distractions and allow yourself to focus on the experience.

Cigar Care: Keeping Your Stash in Top Condition

If you plan on enjoying more than one cigar, proper storage is essential. This is where a humidor comes into play.

The Importance of the Humidor

A humidor is a storage container designed to maintain the optimal humidity level for cigars, typically between 65% and 72% Relative Humidity (RH).

1. Why Humidity Matters: Too dry, and the cigar will burn too quickly and harshly. Too moist, and it can become difficult to draw and prone to mold.
2. Types of Humidors: They range from small desktop boxes to walk-in humidors. For a beginner, a small travel humidor or a desktop humidor is a good start.

Maintaining Optimal Humidity

Humidors typically come with a humidification device (e.g., a sponge-based system, silica gel beads). You'll need to periodically replenish the water or solution in these devices.

Common Pitfalls and How to Avoid Them

Even with the best intentions, there are a few common mistakes beginners make. Being aware of them can help you have a more enjoyable experience from the start.

1. Inhaling the Smoke: As mentioned, this is a major no-no and can lead to an unpleasant nicotine rush and harshness.
2. Lighting with a Zippo Lighter: The fuel in these lighters can impart a chemical taste to your cigar.

3. Smoking Too Quickly: This leads to a hot, bitter smoke and can ruin the cigar's intended flavor profile.
4. Cutting Too Much or Too Little: A poor cut affects draw and can cause the wrapper to unravel.
5. Not Storing Cigars Properly: Dry or overly moist cigars are unpleasant to smoke and can be ruined.

Conclusion: The Journey Continues

Smoking a cigar is a personal journey, an exploration of flavor, aroma, and relaxation. It's about taking a moment for yourself to appreciate the craftsmanship and the sensory experience. Don't be afraid to experiment, to try different cigars, and to discover what you enjoy most. The world of cigars is rich and diverse, and with a little knowledge and patience, you can unlock a truly rewarding pastime. So, light up, puff gently, savor the nuances, and enjoy the moment!

Smoking a cigar is an art form that blends tradition, sensory pleasure, and mindful enjoyment. Unlike the rapid nicotine hit of a cigarette, a cigar offers a deliberate, layered experience that unfolds slowly over time, inviting the smoker to pause, savor, and appreciate each nuance. To truly master the ritual, one must understand not only the mechanics but also the cultural and personal significance behind this time-honored practice.

Understanding the Essence of Cigar Smoking At its core, smoking a cigar is about immersion—engaging sight, smell, taste, and touch in a harmonious sequence. The process begins before the first draw: selecting a cigar that matches your preference in strength, flavor profile, and tobacco origin. Whether you lean toward bold, earthy Cuban cigars or lighter, more refined Dominican blends, choosing the right one sets the foundation. Once in hand, the wrapper—a vibrant, sun-ripened leaf—signals the cigar's character, with its texture and color offering early clues to its intensity and complexity. The way you hold the cigar, gently cradling the foot while rotating it to expose fresh tobacco, enhances the sensory connection and prepares the limb for a smooth, even burn.

As the cigar is lit, the ritual deepens. The slow flame ignites the delicate wrapper, releasing aromatic compounds that dance through the air—notes of leather, tobacco, spice, or floral hints that vary by region and blend. The initial puffs are not about nicotine absorption but about breathing in the rich bouquet, allowing the mind to transition from daily rush to calm presence. This mindful inhalation allows the flavor to unfold gradually, revealing layers as the smoke travels through the intricate network of tobacco strands inside the cigar. Each draw is intentional, with depth and duration adjusted to balance intensity and comfort, never overwhelming the palate.

The Social and Sensory Dimensions Beyond personal enjoyment, smoking a cigar often carries social weight, serving as a bridge between cultures and an accent to shared moments. From elegant cigar lounges to casual gatherings with friends, the act of sharing a cigar fosters connection and conversation, transforming a simple habit into a meaningful tradition. The experience engages multiple senses: the soft pressure of the ring on the lips, the subtle warmth of the cigar against the skin, the visual appeal of a perfectly trimmed stogie, and the deep, contemplative aroma that lingers long after the last puff. These elements combine to elevate smoking from a mere act into a sensory journey—one that rewards patience and presence.

The benefits of smoking a cigar, when approached mindfully, extend beyond pleasure. Many enthusiasts report a sense of relaxation, reduced stress, and increased focus, particularly when smoking in a tranquil setting. The rhythmic nature of draw and pause encourages breathing exercises that can promote calmness. Additionally, the craftsmanship behind premium cigars—hand-rolled with precision and aged over months or even years—represents a dedication to quality and heritage that resonates with connoisseurs. This deep appreciation fosters a deeper connection to the ritual, encouraging responsible, informed consumption.

The Future of Cigar Smoking in a Modern World As lifestyle trends evolve, so too does the way people engage with smoking. While traditional cigar smoking remains rooted in heritage, new generations are embracing innovation—crafted blends, portable cigar tins, and online communities that share knowledge and experiences across borders. Sustainability is also shaping the future, with increased focus on ethical tobacco farming practices and eco-friendly packaging. Despite shifting cultural landscapes, the core appeal endures: the slow, deliberate pleasure of savoring something crafted with care. As education around proper smoking techniques grows, more individuals are discovering not just how to smoke a cigar, but why it matters—transforming it from a fleeting habit into a mindful, enriching tradition.

In time, smoking a cigar may continue to evolve, but its essence remains timeless—a ritual of patience, pleasure, and presence that invites us to slow down, breathe deeply, and truly experience life's subtle flavors.

We'll delve into the essential tools and accessories that can elevate your experience, making each cigar session a memorable occasion.

Choosing Your First Cigar: A Gateway to Discovery

Before you can even think about lighting up, the first crucial step is selecting the right cigar. The world of cigars is vast, with a dizzying array of sizes, shapes, wrappers, binders, and fillers, all contributing to a cigar's unique flavor profile. For beginners, it's wise to start with something approachable and forgiving.

Understanding Cigar Anatomy

A cigar is comprised of three primary parts: the wrapper, the binder, and the filler. The wrapper leaf, the outermost layer, is not only crucial for the cigar's appearance but also contributes significantly to its flavor and aroma. The binder holds the filler leaves together, and the filler itself, often a blend of different tobaccos, dictates the core taste and strength of the cigar. Exploring different tobaccos like Cuban, Dominican, Nicaraguan, or Honduran can lead to a fascinating palate exploration.

Beginner-Friendly Cigar Types

When starting out, opt for a medium-bodied cigar. These offer a pleasant balance of flavor and strength without being overpowering. Look for cigars with Connecticut Shade wrappers - these are typically light brown, smooth, and deliver mild to medium flavors like cream, hay, and subtle spice. Brands known for their beginner-friendly options include Arturo Fuente, Macanudo, and Romeo y Julieta. Avoid overly large ring gauges (the thickness of the cigar) initially, as they can require a longer smoking time and may be more intense. A robusto or a corona size is often an excellent starting point.

Where to Buy Your Cigar

Purchase your cigars from a reputable tobacconist. A good humidor, a specialized storage box that maintains optimal humidity levels, is essential for keeping cigars fresh and ready to smoke. Most shops will have well-maintained humidors and knowledgeable staff who can guide you through your selection. Don't be afraid to ask for recommendations; a seasoned tobacconist is a valuable resource.

The Essential Tools of the Trade

While you can technically smoke a cigar without any accessories, a few key tools significantly enhance the experience and ensure a proper smoke. These aren't just for show; they serve practical purposes that impact the enjoyment of your cigar.

The Cigar Cutter: Precision is Key

The cut of your cigar is paramount. A good cut ensures an even draw and prevents the wrapper from unraveling. There are several types of cutters:

- 1. Guillotine Cutters: The most common, these slice off the cap of the cigar. Single-blade cutters are generally preferred for a cleaner cut than double-blade cutters.
- 2. Punch Cutters: These create a small, circular hole in the cap, ideal for smaller ring gauge cigars or for those who prefer a tighter draw.

- 3. V-Cutters (or Cat's Eye Cutters): These create a V-shaped notch, offering a deeper cut that can be satisfying for some smokers.

For a beginner, a good quality double-guillotine cutter is versatile and effective. Always cut just above the cap line, avoiding cutting too deep, which can compromise the cigar's integrity.

The Lighter: Fueling the Flame

The choice of lighter matters. Avoid butane lighters with a strong chemical smell, as this can interfere with the cigar's flavor. Soft-flame lighters, like those using Zippo fluid (though some purists prefer to avoid fluid entirely) or dedicated butane soft-flame lighters, are acceptable. However, the ideal choice for optimal flavor is a butane torch lighter. These provide a clean, odorless flame that allows you to light the cigar evenly without imparting any unwanted tastes. Never use a wooden match or a Bic lighter for your first few experiences; the sulfur from matches and the plastic smell from disposable lighters can taint the cigar.

The Humidor: The Guardian of Flavor

A humidor is a critical investment if you plan on enjoying cigars regularly. It's a box designed to maintain a consistent humidity level, typically between 68% and 72%. This humidity is crucial for the tobacco to retain its moisture, preventing it from drying out and becoming brittle, or from becoming too moist and difficult to draw. Properly humidified cigars burn more evenly, taste better, and are more enjoyable to smoke. Many beginners start with a small desktop humidor, which is perfect for a modest collection.

The Ritual: Cutting and Lighting Your Cigar

With your chosen cigar and tools ready, it's time for the first steps of the smoking ritual. These actions are more than just functional; they are part of the deliberate and mindful enjoyment of a cigar.

How to Cut a Cigar

Before lighting, you must cut the cap of the cigar. The cap is the small piece of tobacco that seals the end of the cigar. A proper cut allows for a good draw without damaging the wrapper. Here's how:

- 1. Hold the Cigar Firmly: Grip the cigar between your thumb and forefinger, holding it at the point where you intend to cut.
- 2. Position the Cutter: Place the cutter around the cap, ensuring you're cutting just above the curved edge where the cap meets the wrapper.
- 3. Execute the Cut: For a guillotine cutter, a quick, decisive action is best. For a punch cutter, apply firm pressure to pierce the cap.
- 4. Inspect the Cut: Gently check that the cut is clean and that the wrapper isn't fraying. If it is, you may need to trim a little more or consider using a different cutter.

The goal is to create an opening that allows for a smooth, unrestricted draw without the wrapper unraveling. A common mistake for beginners is cutting too deep, which can lead to an unraveling wrapper. Conversely, cutting too little can result in a tight draw.

How to Light a Cigar

This is where many beginners falter. Lighting a cigar is not like lighting a cigarette; it's a more deliberate process. Using a torch lighter is recommended for an even and clean burn.

- 1. Toast the Foot: Hold the cigar at an angle, about an inch above the flame of your torch lighter. Rotate the cigar slowly, allowing the flame to toast the tobacco evenly. You want to see the tobacco begin to char and glow slightly. This is called "toasting" the foot.
- 2. Bring the Flame to the Cigar: Once the foot is toasted, gently bring the flame to the end of the cigar, continuing to rotate it. Aim to get an even burn across the entire surface.
- 3. Draw Gently: As you bring the flame to the cigar, take a gentle puff. This helps draw the flame into the tobacco and ensures an even ignition.
- 4. Check the Burn: Once lit, remove the flame and take another gentle puff. Observe the burn line. It should be even and consistent. If it's uneven, you can touch it up by directing the flame to the cooler spots.

Never inhale the smoke directly into your lungs. Cigar smoke is meant to be savored in the mouth, allowing the flavors to coat your palate. Puffing too hard or too fast can lead to a harsh, bitter taste and overheating the cigar.

The Art of Drawing and Enjoying

The actual smoking of the cigar is where the true appreciation lies. It's about slowing down, engaging your senses, and experiencing the complex nuances of the tobacco.

Drawing Technique

This is perhaps the most misunderstood aspect of cigar smoking. Unlike cigarettes, you do not inhale cigar smoke. Instead, you draw the smoke into your mouth and then gently exhale.

- 1. Gentle Puffs: Take slow, deliberate puffs. Think of it as sipping rather than inhaling.
- 2. Allow Flavors to Develop: Hold the smoke in your mouth for a few seconds to allow the flavors to coat your palate. You'll notice different notes, from earthy and woody to nutty and spicy.
- 3. Exhale Through the Nose: For an enhanced sensory experience, gently exhale some of the smoke through your nose. This can reveal additional aromatic nuances.

Puffing too frequently can make the cigar burn too hot, leading to a bitter taste. Aim for a puff every 30-60 seconds. If the cigar goes out, don't worry; it can be relit.

Savoring the Flavors

Each cigar has a flavor profile that evolves as you smoke it. This evolution is often divided into thirds:

- 1. First Third: Typically the initial introduction to the cigar's character. Flavors are often brighter and more pronounced.
- 2. Middle Third: The cigar often reaches its peak complexity. Flavors deepen, and the strength may increase.
- 3. Final Third (the "Nose"): As the cigar burns down, the flavors can become more intense and richer. Be mindful of not smoking too close to your fingers or the heat.

Pay attention to the aromas, the taste on your tongue, and even the sensation in your mouth. Consider what food or drink might pair well with your cigar. A good bourbon, a single malt scotch, or even a strong cup of coffee can complement cigar flavors beautifully.

Managing Your Cigar: Relighting and Extinguishing

Even experienced smokers encounter cigars that go out. It's not a sign of failure, but rather an opportunity to practice proper relighting and extinguishing etiquette.

Relighting a Went-Out Cigar

If your cigar goes out, don't despair. First, gently tap off any excess ash. Then, relight it as you did initially, toasting the foot and taking a few draws. Some argue that relit cigars don't taste as good, but this can depend on the quality of the cigar and how long it has been out. Avoid relighting a cigar that has been out for a very long time, as it may have lost too much moisture.

How to Extinguish a Cigar

The proper way to extinguish a cigar is not by stubbing it out like a cigarette. This releases an acrid smell and can be considered rude in cigar lounges or social settings. Instead:

- 1. Let it Go Out Naturally: The best method is to simply place the cigar in an ashtray and let it extinguish itself.
- 2. Gentle Pressure: If you need to extinguish it more quickly, you can gently press the ash end against the side of an ashtray. The lack of oxygen will put it out.

The cigar will naturally go out and cool down, preventing the offensive smell associated with stubbing. Proper cigar etiquette emphasizes respect for the cigar and for others.

Cigar Etiquette and Common Mistakes to Avoid

Smoking a cigar is a social activity for many, and understanding the unwritten rules of cigar etiquette can enhance everyone's enjoyment.

Key Etiquette Points

- 1. Respectful Environment: Be mindful of where you are smoking. Many restaurants and bars have designated

- smoking areas or prohibit smoking altogether.
- 2. Don't Inhale: As mentioned, cigar smoke is not meant for the lungs.
 - 3. Don't Cut Too Much: A proper cut is essential for a good draw.
 - 4. Don't Rush: Cigar smoking is a leisurely activity. Allow yourself time to enjoy it.
 - 5. Proper Ash Management: Let the ash fall naturally. A long, intact ash can indicate a well-constructed cigar and a slow burn.
 - 6. Mind Your Neighbors: Be considerate of others around you, especially regarding the aroma of the smoke.

Common Mistakes for Beginners

- 1. Inhaling the smoke.
- 2. Cutting too much of the cap off.
- 3. Using the wrong lighter (e.g., butane with a strong smell).
- 4. Smoking too quickly, causing the cigar to burn too hot.
- 5. Not storing cigars properly in a humidor.

Questions & Answers About how to smoke a cigar

N o	Question	Answer
1	What's the best way to cut a cigar for a perfect draw?	The most popular cuts are the straight cut (using a guillotine or cutter) and the punch cut. For a straight cut, aim for a clean, shallow slice that removes about 1/8 inch of the cap. For a punch, a single, clean hole is sufficient. Experiment to find what provides your preferred draw.
2	How do I properly light a cigar to avoid bitterness?	Never use a Zippo or a butane lighter. Use a cedar strip, a butane torch lighter, or a sulfur-free wooden match. Hold the flame an inch away from the cigar's foot and toast the wrapper evenly, rotating the cigar until the entire foot is glowing. Then, bring the flame closer and puff gently to light.
3	What's the ideal way to puff and smoke a cigar without rushing it?	Cigars are meant to be savored. Puff gently and infrequently, about once every 30-60 seconds. Don't inhale the smoke into your lungs; let it linger on your palate. This allows you to appreciate the flavors and prevents overheating, which causes bitterness.

4	Should I ash my cigar, and how often?	Let the ash build up naturally. It helps regulate the burn temperature. Gently tap the ash off when it gets about an inch long, or let it fall into the ashtray. Avoid flicking it, as this can be seen as impolite and can damage the cigar.
5	What are some common mistakes beginners make when smoking cigars?	Common mistakes include cutting too much of the cap, using the wrong lighter (like a Zippo), inhaling the smoke, puffing too frequently, and rushing the experience. Patience and proper technique are key to enjoying a cigar.
6	How do I know when to put a cigar out?	There's no strict rule, but most cigars should be enjoyed until about an inch or two from the end. When the flavors become harsh or the cigar starts to taste acrid, it's a good indicator. Simply place it in the ashtray and let it extinguish itself; don't stub it out.
