The lyrical narrative, telling the story of a young boy's earnest wish to see Santa, is mirrored in the music's rising and falling phrases. The verses build with a sense of quiet anticipation, while the chorus swells with a more expansive, joyous feeling. This dynamic interplay between lyrical content and musical expression is a hallmark of effective Christmas carols and is beautifully executed in "When Christmas Comes to Town."

Common keys include G major (with one sharp) and C major (no sharps or flats).
- Time Signature: The song typically employs a 4/4 time signature, meaning there are four beats per measure, and a quarter note receives one beat. This creates a steady, marching rhythm that is easy to follow and sing along to.

The gentle, flowing nature of "When Christmas Comes to Town" often calls for legato playing.
