

Foundations of web design introduction to html

` Section: Visible content. D. Essential Semantic Elements: `<>`,

-

/ /

,

/ /

,

—

1

\. Meaningful structural tags. E. Text Formatting Elements: \

/ /

'

/ / / /
 / / /

` , ``. Styling and emphasizing content. III. Understanding

Attributes: Adding Specificity A.

The `id` Attribute: Unique identification. B. The `class` Attribute: Grouping and styling.

C. Other Common Attributes: `style`, `title`, `lang`. Adding various properties. IV. Working with Images and Links:

Enhancing Engagement A. The `` Element: Displaying visuals.

Image placement and sizing. B.

The `` Element: Creating Hyperlinks. Linking internally and externally. C. Image optimization:

Size, format, and alt text. V. Lists and Tables: Structuring Data A.

Unordered Lists (`

`),`

1. `): Bullet points. B. Ordered Lists (`

`),`

1. `): Numbered lists. C. Definition Lists (`

`),`

`),`

`): Explanatory terms. D. Tables (`