It was a combination of personal curiosity, a thirst for knowledge, and a serendipitous spark that ignited the creation of "Clan of the Cave Bear."

The initial inspiration for the novel is often attributed to a lecture on early human migration and the challenges faced by prehistoric peoples. Auel, then a homemaker and mother, found herself captivated by the idea of exploring the lives of our ancient ancestors. She was particularly drawn to the concept of different hominid species coexisting and interacting, a cornerstone of the narrative she would develop.
